

These two days are a lifting up of the ideals of the Cursillo method.

A CLW can be an inspiring and spiritual experience, but does not attempt to repeat the Three Day Weekend experience.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND A CLW?

The CLW is for all who want to know more about Cursillo. All are welcome, lay or ordained.

Those who have any leadership role should certainly attend before, or as soon as possible after taking office.

WHO LEADS A CLW?

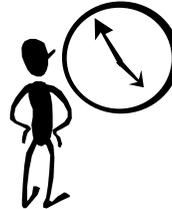

Those who make up the leadership of the presenting team for a CLW have themselves already attended a CLW and are leaders from within the British Anglican Cursillo movement.

Three people make up the team which includes a Spiritual Director.

HOW LONG IS A CLW?

Basically, two days. These run from 5.30p.m. on the first evening to around 2pm on the final day. Usually Friday to Sunday.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The full cost of the week-end is £200 which includes board and room.

A £60 per person non-returnable deposit is required on booking. The balance is due one month before the week-end.

We recommended that private holiday insurance is obtained.

HOW DO I BOOK?

Ask for an application form—or download one from the BACC website:

<http://www.anglicancursillo.co.uk/>

Bookings should be made no less than 2 months before the week-end and places are allocated on a first come first served basis. (Though last minute places are sometimes available – contact administrator to enquire).

Please send application forms to Paul Thacker, see overleaf for contact details.
